

ALJAZEERA

6 March 2024

Weekly Highlights

This week, we take a look at what has been dubbed as the "Flour Massacre", an Israeli attack on aid-seekers in Gaza that killed more than 100 civilians and wounded hundreds more.

We also bring you the key takeaways from Super Tuesday in the US, where both Democratic incumbent Joe Biden and Republican frontrunner Donald Trump cruised to victory in the majority of the contests.

Finally, we turn our attention to the tensions between Germany and Russia after a leak of an intercepted online call between senior German military officials revealed them discussing the war in Ukraine.

Inside Israel's Flour Massacre in Gaza

Witness react to the killing of 118 Palestinians scrambling for food amid a dire humanitarian situation.

Five takeaways from the US Super Tuesday primary races

Nikki Haley denies Trump a clean sweep with victory in Vermont, while Biden faces continued protest.

---

Russia spins German military leak but chances of escalation slim

Russia intercepted a call that revealed top-level talk on striking the Kerch Bridge. But analysts say while Berlin may be embarrassed, it's far from planning an attack.

---

Army brat to 'anti-establishment' face: Who is Pakistan's Omar Ayub Khan?

His grandfather launched Pakistan's first military coup. Now, Omar Ayub Khan is the face of a party whose leader accuses the army of unseating him from power.

---

Is a gang-led coup next in Haiti?

Caribbean nation in chaos after gangs instigate a mass prison escape and call for the prime minister to step down. How did it get here?

PODCAST : Why Aaron Bushnell self-immolated for Gaza

Who was the 25-year-old who lit himself on fire outside the Israeli embassy in Washington, DC?

ALJAZEERA

Your News, Your Way

Sign up for a free account and join our global community!

Sign Up Now

Follow Al Jazeera English on:

© 2024 Al Jazeera Media Network

Al Jazeera English, PO Box 23127
Doha - Qatar

