

#GIVINGTUESDAY

NOVEMBER 28

Defending the Safety of Jews Worldwide...
Standing with Israel...Combating Anti-Semitism & Hate

Tomorrow, Giving Tuesday comes at a time when Jews are facing a level of anti-Semitism and hate thought impossible just a few years ago.

From threats against Jewish students on campus to anti-Israel protests in the streets, to cemetery desecrations and synagogue vandalizations, the daily threats the Jewish people are facing are relentless - the urgency has never been greater.

We are counting on our supporters and friends like you to help keep the Simon Wiesenthal Center strong during this critical time.
